DEVELOPMENT DAY

The Toowoomba Development Day was a great day run by Robyn Prentice with help from Southern coaches and committee.

Players traveled from Crows Nest, Warwick, Dalby, Laidley, Lowood, Ipswich, Gold Coast and Maroochydore. Players gained valuable knowledge both on court and off court with a 'think tank' over the lunch break. Giving the players some insights into game preparation and mental toughness.

Positive feedback from all players and parents. Big thank you to Ron Crossley from Toowoomba courts for your support of our day. (He kindly donated the courts for free).

GOLD COAST JUNIOR CHALLENGE

Sunday 26th March - Gold Coast Junior Challenge

Some great action and close games. Players traveled from as far as Crows Nest, Toowoomba, Lowood and Ipswich. Our loyal Brisbane players also made the trip.

Gold Coast was well represented with many new players playing their first junior tournament.

Division 1 - Winner: Katie Davies (BR) Runner Up: Ella Burge (BR) in a close 5 setter with 45 points all. Third: Lachlan Woodforth and 4th: Chris Wiid from Southern playing his first tournament traveling all the way down from Toowoomba.

Division 2 Boys - Winner: Joshua Wood (BR) Runner Up: Dylan Palmer (Southern) Third: Josh Forgan (Southern) also playing in his first junior tournament.

Division 2 Girls - Winner: Jessamay Prior Runner Up: Shona Cocksedge Third: Angelina Brunskill (playing her first junior tournament). Both Jessamay and Shona proved too strong for their opposition winning all their games in 3. Had a close 5 setter against each other. This division was an all Southern girls division!

Division 4 - Winner: Andrew Palmer (Southern) Runner Up: Lachlan Craven (Southern) Third: Tara Davies (BR). Some very close games and I think fitness won out in the end.

LINDSAY BLINCO

Lindsay began playing in 2004 as a junior for Crows Nest Squash Club. He developed his game and progressed through the ranks to become Crows Nest Club Captain and play Division 1 in Toowoomba and Crows Nest.

At school he was selected to play for the Darling Downs Secondary School team for 4 years and traveled to compete at Rockhampton, Bundaberg, Acacia Ridge and Wavell. In 2016, Lindsay was selected to represent Queensland as a member of the U19's schoolboys team, for the Trans-Tasman Series against New Zealand.

Lindsay also represented the Southern Storm for 4 years competing at the Queensland Junior Championships - individual and team events. Lindsay trained in Toowoomba with Darling Downs coach Ron Weatherby and traveled weekly to Brisbane for further coaching with Robyn Prentice.

LAUREN LUCK

Lauren Luck became very keen on squash after watching her brothers play while she was growing up. She started playing as soon as she could hit a serve into the other side of the court and hasn't stopped since. Lauren's goal has always been to play good squash and be competitive amongst her peers.

14 year old Lauren is from Laidley and has been part of the Storm (Southern Region rep team) for the past 4 years. She has also competed at the QJC for the past 4 years. Her best results have been a 4th place finish in U13's in 2015 and a 4th place finish in the U15's in 2016.

Lauren played in her first AJC in 2016 finishing a creditable 12th in U15's. She has represented Met West Region School Squash in U15's for 5 years. She was formerly coached by Natalie Newton.

Lauren plays and trains up to 5 days a week and has recently been selected to participate in the Met West School team at the State Secondary Schools Squash Championships to be held at Scottvale Park in Rockhampton from 25-28 May 2017.
